

SAMPLE / TEST DOCUMENT — NOT A REAL LEGAL NOTICE

LEGAL NOTICE UNDER SECTION 138 OF THE NEGOTIABLE
INSTRUMENTS ACT, 1881

Notice No.	LL-TEST-2026-001
Date	14 August 2026
To	Mr. Rohan Mehta
Address	24, Lake View Road, Bengaluru, Karnataka – 560038
From	Ms. Ananya Rao
Address	17, Green Park Extension, Bengaluru, Karnataka – 560034
Subject	Demand for payment of dishonoured cheque

Sir/Madam,

Under instructions from and on behalf of the sender, this notice is issued regarding an alleged outstanding payment arising from a fictional personal loan transaction.

Facts

It is stated that a sum of INR 1,50,000 was allegedly advanced on 10 June 2026. Towards repayment, cheque no. 482731 dated 20 July 2026, drawn on Example Bank, Bengaluru Branch, was allegedly issued.

Dishonour

The cheque was presented for collection and was returned unpaid with the fictional bank return reason: “Funds Insufficient”. The alleged return memo is stated to have been received on 23 July 2026.

Demand

The recipient is called upon to pay INR 1,50,000 within the statutory period applicable to the alleged dishonour, together with any legally recoverable costs, failing which the sender may pursue remedies available under applicable law.

Important Test Note

This is not an actual notice and does not establish that any statutory requirement has been satisfied. It is intentionally synthetic and should not be used or served in a real dispute.

This synthetic document is generated solely for software/OCR/RAG testing. Names, addresses, dates, cheque details, amounts, case references, and events are fictional.